A black seal is shown on a sandy beach with the ocean in the background. A blue speech bubble points to the seal, and a blue thought bubble is above its head.

Have I got a story to tell you!

A Virtual Happy Hour at the Pamet Harbor Club — Friday June
19 at 6:00PM

Story Telling:

Life In and Out of the ## Ocean

Hosted by: Brigid Moynahan and Ray Clarke

Ray and Brigid will read their stories then welcome you to briefly share an experience living on the outer Cape by answering one of the questions below. (If you don't get time to speak, we'll also be collecting your comments in "chat" to share with other Zoomers!)

- Tell us about something exciting that happened to you on/in the water.
- How has being here changed you?
- What makes the Outer Cape a special place for you?
- Tell us about something or someone you've discovered here that's surprising.

Sign up by 12 Noon on Friday June 19 online if possible or call Charlie (508 514-1879). Sign up early if you can!
