with

Sarah Burrill

“Sarah brings to her music and performance a depth and passion that is nothing short of contagious. Whether she is belting out a blues, caressing the melody of a delicate love song, encouraging social consciousness and change or singing about her pajamas, it is an experience that inspires courage, strength and hope. She does all of this while creating atmosphere of playfulness and spontaneity that is disarming and uniquely Sarah. It takes no time at all to understand she is here to have fun and brings her audience right along with her. A nationally acclaimed artist, Sarah has performed throughout the country and has opened for many well known artists including Jesse Colin Young, Patty Larkin, Greg Greenway and Ferron.” From In The Balance with Susan Lambert
