

Pammet Harbor Club

Theater Night

Wednesday, August 18th
7:00 PM

at

Wellfleet Harbor Actors Theater

Nat Turner in Jerusalem

By Nathan Alan Davis

In August 1831, Nat Turner led a slave uprising that shook the conscience of the nation. Turner's startling account of his prophecy and the insurrection was recorded and published by attorney Thomas R. Gray. This timely play imagines Turner's final night in a jail cell in Jerusalem, Virginia, as he is revisited by Gray and they reckon with what has passed, and what the dawn will bring. Woven with vivid imagery and indelible lyricism, Nat Turner in Jerusalem examines the power of an individual's resolute convictions and their seismic reverberations through time.

For more info about the play visit: <http://www.what.org/natturner/>

The performance is outdoors.

Tickets - $27.00 per person

Reservations by Monday, August 16th

Sign – up on the club website

www.pametclub.com