

April 20 Potluck: “Edward Hopper on Cape Cod”

Join Us Saturday, April 20, 5:30-8:00pm, for a Potluck Dinner including

Presentation by Beth Chapman – Creator of “Hopper After Dinner”

Hopper After Dinner is a 60-minute audio-visual, vibrant presentation of the little-known and lesser studied Wellfleet and Truro paintings of Edward and Josephine Nivison Hopper. You’ll learn about more than 60 locations on the Outer Cape where the Hoppers painted and the historical and environmental context of their work.

Lisbeth Wiley Chapman was the founder of Hopper House Tours, serving more than 1000 art enthusiasts with auto tours. With Hopper After Dinner, she offers her deep research and local knowledge in a live and lively presentation format and - thanks to PHC members Shawn and Kevin Grunwald – to PHC members*

Recognize the local location?

← What Hopper saw....

What he painted.... →

The Essential Info:

- Potluck Dinner – BYOB
- Saturday, April 20, 5:30-8pm
- Register/Let Us Know What You’re Bringing by CLICKING HERE
- Guests Welcome
- Want To/Can You Help with Set Up or Wrap Up?
Email Karen Reimann: karen.ruymann@gmail.com

* Shawn and Kevin are donating Beth’s presentation, which they won at an auction. We will also invite attendees to signal extra appreciation at the end of the evening with a donation